AMANDA BOLDUC PROPOSAL

EVENT OVERVIEW

Ceremony & Reception

A fresh, youthful layout that puts the couple at the heart of the room and keeps guests close throughout the evening.

CEREMONY

In-the-Round / Presidium

- Ceremony staged at the center of Main Hall where the dance floor will later open.
- 100 white folding chairs with white chair covers (Package 3) arranged around the couple.
- Defined aisle for processional; bridal party of 6 bridesmaids and 6 groomsmen.
- White drape and expanded lighting package to frame the ceremony zone.
- House sound available for ceremony music and later DJ/band.

BRIDAL PARTY

Personal Flower Suite

- 1 bridal bouquet
- 1 groom boutonniere
- 6 bridesmaid bouquets
- 6 groomsman boutonnieres
- Parent corsages / additional personal flowers available on request (TBD)
- Event-wide florals & floral styling throughout ceremony, cocktail hour, and reception
- Palette: monobotanical white, ivory, and pastel — Queen Anne's lace, black-eyed susans, lamb's ear, and summer herbs

Reception Seating — 100 Guests

After cocktail hour, Main Hall resets with the central dance floor open where the ceremony took place. Guest seating is arranged in vignettes surrounding the floor; dinner service is placed throughout the room.

- Central dance floor — open center of Main Hall (former ceremony area)
- Round table vignettes (4 sections · 10 guests each) — 60" round tables, linens, place settings, centerpieces
- High communal vignettes (2 sections · 10 guests each) — high communal tables with bar-height seating
- Mixed lounge vignettes (4 sections · 10 guests each) — loveseats, one-off chairs, ottomans, occasional tables
- Dinner service — chef-attended stations and passed service positioned around the room

Cocktail Hour — Main House

- Curated food displays — artisan boards, seasonal bites, and passed appetizers
- Non-alcoholic and beverage service throughout the hour
- Menu style and selections finalized at tasting

Reception — Dinner & Dessert

- Dinner service — chef-attended stations with seasonal entrées, sides, and accompaniments
- Passed hors d'oeuvres — circulated during reception as desired
- Dessert — cake provided by client; TMH provides attractive display & service
- Coffee & tea — served with dessert

Cash Bar — Reception

- Cash bar service — TMH provides bar setup, staffing, and disposable glassware; guests purchase alcoholic beverages individually
- Beer, wine, seltzers, and mixed drinks available at published cash-bar pricing
- Service from cocktail hour through reception (up to 5 hours)
- Two bartenders recommended for 100 guests

Decor & Inspiration

An airy, elegant palette — garden-inspired florals, simple centerpieces, and vignette seating throughout Main Hall. Venue photos from TheMarlboroughHouse.com; additional inspiration references shown for mood and scale.

Main Hall Reception — The Marlborough House

Tree-branch ceiling lighting and open floor plan — ideal for an in-the-round ceremony flip into vignette reception with central dance floor.

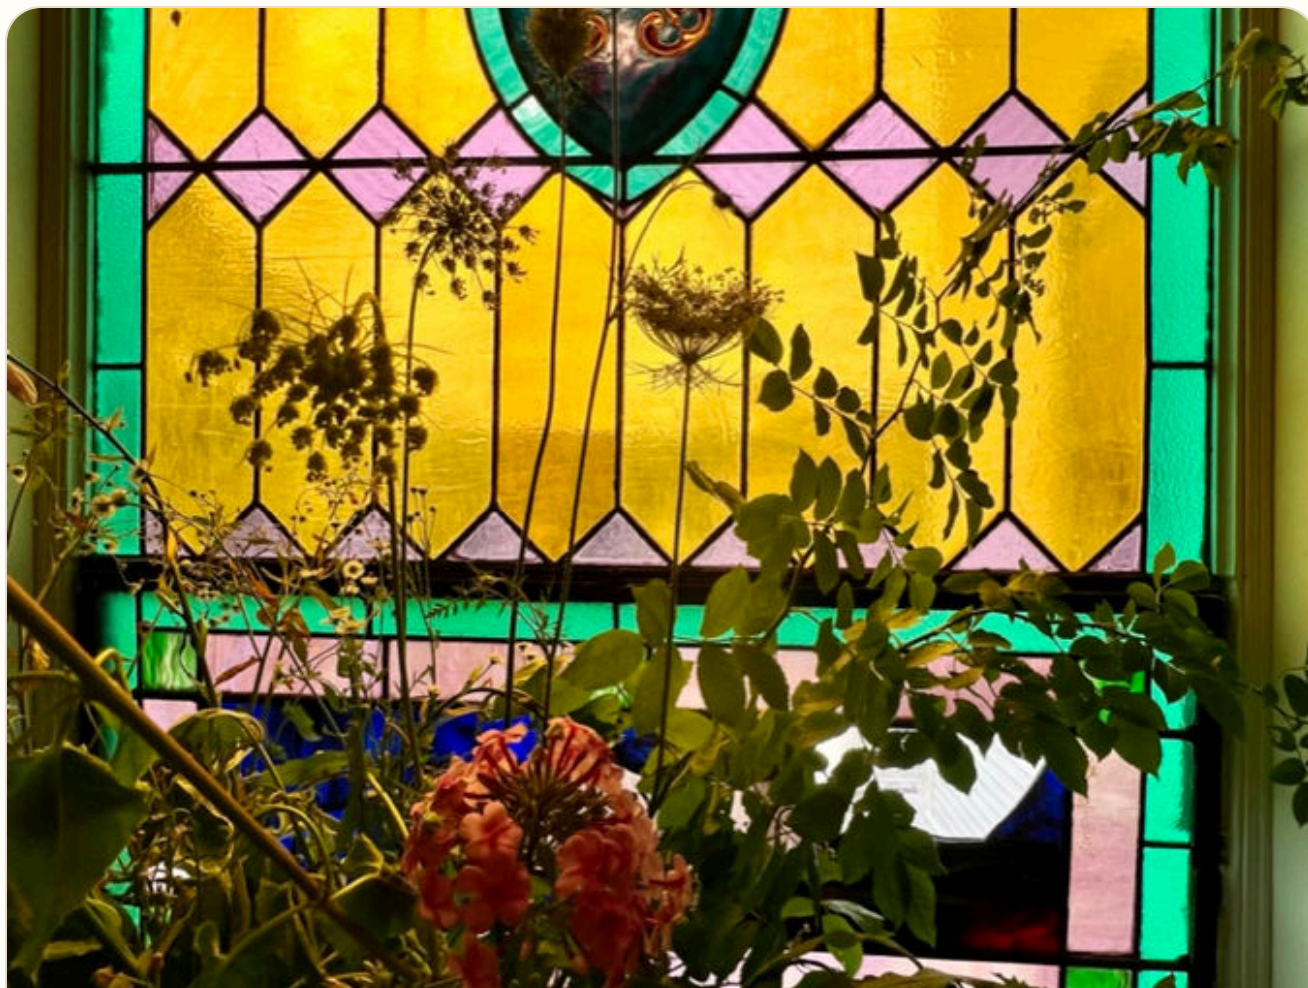

Vignette Reception Style

Warm lighting and mixed seating vignettes surrounding the dance floor — communal tables, lounge groupings, and round-table sections for 100 guests.

Mixed Lounge Vignette

Loveseats, one-off chairs, ottomans, and styled seating corners — reference for lounge sections seating 10 guests each.

Summer Florals at TMH — Queen Anne's Lace

Airy, simple styling with Queen Anne's lace and garden blooms — reference for centerpieces with herbs, black-eyed susans, and lamb's ear.

Personal Flowers — Monobotanical White & Pastel

Bride, bridesmaids, and boutonnieres in clean ivory and blush tones — loose, youthful, and personal.

Bridal Party Bouquet Palette

Soft ivory, blush, and pastel garden flowers for the personal flower suite — monobotanical moments mixed with seasonal texture.

Simple Table Centerpieces

Low, airy arrangements in glass — white and blush blooms with herbs and garden texture for round-table vignettes.
